

PRINCE SULE VISCOUNT OSAGIEDE OGBEWEKON
REMEMBRANCE DAY 21 JAN 2014

Our lovely handsome Prince, everyday is a Remembrance Day of your passing away in a fatal car accident. But this day marks 4 years you departed this world. Your mom, sister, some of your friends and members of the Benin Royal family of Nigeria knows that your death was not a natural death; it was caused by evil people.

Our Prince, no one will step in your position, you will always remain in our heart and actions as the eldest son of Jennifer and Wisdom; and members of the Benin Royal Family.

Prince Sule you are the greatest! Even after your death you still make us proud of your achievements. We see your smiling face, each morning when we wake. We talk to you and place a kiss upon your lovely face. How much we miss you being here, we really cannot say. The ache is deep inside our heart and never goes away. We hear it mentioned often, that time will heal the pain, but if we are being honest, we hope it will remain. We need to feel you constantly to get us through the day. We love you very much. You should have had so many years to watch your life unfold and in the mist of this, watch your mom and dad grow old! We hope you watch from above the daily tasks we do, and let there be no doubt at all that we really do love you always forever.

LT COL WISDOM OSAGIEDE OGBEWEKON OSEMWENDE

US ARMY

FOR THE FAMILY

On behalf of my family, I wish to seize this opportunity to continue to thank each and every one of you. We are very proud of you also! To Prince Sule's friends, his fraternity brothers and sisters, Tulane University New Orleans, Prince Sule's Scholarship Foundation (www.sulescholarship.com) and the public. Thanks to you All.

LT COL WISDOM OSAGIEDE OGBEWEKON OSEMWENDE

US ARMY

FOR THE FAMILY